Committee Reports

Beautification – Trena Pauly

Shares rendition for sign at Kelseyville Lumber that will feature Kelseyville events

Available to clubs to buy signs to display their events will be placed at old Kelseyville lumber sign

People Services is working out well on cleaning sidewalks and trash cans

Baconfest – Rick White

Sold 712 tickets, didn't sell out so next year will be the same size. No need to scale up until event sells out quickly.

15 chefs

BaconMaster – Boars Breath

Peoples Choice- Woodland College 3 years in a row

Dessert- C&E Creamery

A lot of help from volunteers to help run and help wrap up the event to clean up

Street dance – Rick for Brad White

A lot of fun, Fargo Brothers coming up

Sponsorship is down this year with most sponsors coming out of Lakeport. If any KBA members are able to sponsor, please reach out so we can keep the same level of quality musicians as enjoyed last year.

Members- *Lorna Sides for Senior/Event Center, spoke of needing volunteers to join the Board for the Event Center to help continue the progress taking place in improving the facility. A grant writer would be helpful at this stage to raise funds for ongoing needs at the Center. Any KBA members able to contribute are encouraged to do so.

Current activities and needs at the Center:

Supporting seniors- meals on wheels and social time 5 days a week.

Activities- Monday card games, Wednesday art club

lighting to LED, new roofing

needed: lighting conversion to LED, roof repair, ice machine repair, new commercial fridge, upgrade the phone system, new flooring

Current income is collected by renting the building, fundraising, donations. The Center is currently running at a small loss and needs more support in bringing in revenue.

Robert Boccabella- CTA Certified Tourist Ambassador next training is August the 6th in Hidden Valley, if interested check in with the Chamber.

Would like to schedule a crawl in Kelseyville needs feedback from merchants to see if they want to stay open during the crawl.

Turnout should be 40 people

Annette Higday –

What is the status of the KBA donating to the Senior Center? Rick needs a motion and then a vote to move that forward.

Rick asked the Beautification Committee to formulate a plan and submit what they think KBA should do. The flooring cost seems excessive and why not cover other visual things to generate income first?

Melisa Fulton from the Chamber-

This weekend (get date) is the 90th annual Lake County Rodeo Grand Marshal is Johnny Jones Kelseyville resident Dedicating the rodeo to Quincy Andrus this year 7/13.

On July 20th Rhythm and Brews in Library Park. There will be a VIP dunk tank, Rick White will be in the tank.

Next meeting is a mixer on August 12th at Fore Family Wines tasting room.

7:22pm.

Meeting adjourned.
